

Part II

Demonstrate Your Lifelong Learning and Self-Assessment.

Demonstrate your lifelong learning activities.

Demonstrate your self-assessment activities.

Earn 35 Category 1 CME credits per year for each 2-year period (or a total of 70 credits for 2 years).<sup>1</sup>
OR
Participate in an accredited fellowship during one full year of any 2-year period.<sup>2</sup>

Earn 10 Category 1 CME credits as SAMS<sup>3</sup> per year (20 credits as SAMS in 2 years) of the 35 CME credits per year (70 CME credits in 2 years).

Every 2 Years

Every 2 Years

ASCP TOOLS for earning CME LIFELONG LEARNING Credits

Annual Meeting
Weekends of Pathology
Educational Courses
Teleconferences
eCourses
Online Case Studies (CE Updates)
CheckSample®
CheckPath®
GYN Assessment™
Non-GYN Assessment™

ASCP TOOLS for earning SAMS CREDITS

eCourses include –

- Does It Matter? (Pap Test Interpretations)
- Fine Needle Aspiration Cytopathology of Lymph Nodes
- Lymphoid Disorders in Blood and Bone Marrow
- New Aspects of Cardiac Risk Factors
- Practical Approach to Dermatopathology of Inflammatory Skin Diseases
- An Algorithmic Approach to the Diagnosis of Malignant Mesothelioma
- Preventing Errors in the Hematology Lab
- Red Cell Morphology
- CERP Series: 4 eCourses on chemical terrorism agents

<sup>1</sup>80% of the CME requirement must be directly related to your pathology practice. The remainder may be in areas of general relevance to pathology, such as administration or ethics.

<sup>2</sup>Covers Part II and Part IV requirements

<sup>3</sup>SAMS (self-assessment modules): CME activities that include a self-administered examination that requires performance to a minimum standard and provides feedback to the participant.

<sup>4</sup>The MOC examination is mandatory and is given at least once each year. It must be taken no later than 10 years after your initial or most recent recertification. It may be taken as early

Part III

Demonstrate Your Cognitive Expertise.

Demonstrate your fundamental knowledge, current clinically valid practice-related knowledge, information new to the field since recertification, and practice environment topics (eg, regulations, CLIA standards, lab management).

Pass the MOC examination<sup>4</sup> administered by ABP.

Every 10 Years