International Credential
Maintenance Program

www.ascp.org/CMP

In keeping with our ongoing commitment to assure the continued competence of medical laboratory personnel, the ASCP Board of Certification (BOC) developed the Credential Maintenance Program (CMP). This booklet will acquaint you with the requirements of the CMP and provide you with everything you need to know to complete the program.

The CMP provides an opportunity to obtain a wide variety of learning experiences that demonstrate your professional competency and dedication to excellence in the workplace. Some of the qualifying activities include: employer offered course work, writing journal articles, serving on committees or boards, competence assessment by your employer, and participating in formal continuing education courses.

In addition to helping you maintain your professional certification, the CMP can help you stay current on developments in your field and provide opportunities for both professional and personal enrichment. For additional information, please refer to the BOC CMP website www.ascp.org/cmp.

The Board of Certification does not discriminate among applicants as to age, gender, race, religion, national origin, disability, marital status or sexual orientation.

All program requirements, processes and fees as stated in this booklet are subject to change without prior notice. Revised 1/2022.

		COMPLETING INTERNATIONAL CMP – STEP BY STEP	17

The goal of the Credential Maintenance Program (CMP) is to demonstrate to the public that laboratory professionals with the “CM” designation are completing continuing education (CE) activities to stay current in their practice.

REQUIRED CMP PARTICIPATION

The International CMP is required for all individuals who became newly certified on or after January 1, 2012 in the following categories:

International Technologist in Blood Banking (BB)
International Technologist in Chemistry (C)
International Technologist in Cytogenetics (CG)
International Cytologist (CT)
International Gynecologic Cytologist (CTgyn)
International Technologist in Hematology (H)
International Histotechnician (HT)
International Histotechnologist (HTL)
International Technologist in Microbiology (M)
International Technologist in Molecular Biology (MB)
International Medical Laboratory Scientist (MLS)
International Medical Laboratory Technician (MLT)
International Phlebotomy Technician (PBT)
International Specialist in Blood Banking (SBB)
International Specialist in Chemistry (SC)
International Specialist in Cytology (SCT)
International Specialist in Hematology (SH)
International Specialist in Microbiology (SM)
International Specialist in Molecular Biology (SMB)
International Specialist in Cytometry (SCYM)
Científico de Laboratorio Médico Internacional (CLM)

The required CMP as described in this booklet must be completed every three years to maintain certification. To successfully complete the program, documented activities demonstrating continued competence must be completed prior to the certification expiration date. An online declaration form documenting your required CEs, along with the CMP application fee must be submitted at least one month prior to the certification expiration date.

CE activities completed before your current three-year certification cycle begins will not be accepted. For example, if your three-year certification cycle is January 1, 2022 through January 31, 2025, you will need to complete your continuing education between those dates. (See FAQ3 on page 16.) CEs or CMP points may only be used for one certification cycle.

Upon successful completion of the program, your certification is valid for the next three-year cycle. The superscript “CM” following your certification credential indicates you have successfully maintained certification under the CMP. [e.g., MLS(ASCP)^{CM}] If you do not participate in the required CMP and your certification expires, you are no longer permitted to use the ASCP certification credential after your name. (See Reinstatement for Expired Certification on page 15.)

VOLUNTARY PARTICIPATION

Individuals ASCPⁱ certified prior to January 2012, are not required to participate in the program; however, voluntary participation is encouraged since continuing education (CE) provides many personal and professional benefits. If you choose to participate in this program on a voluntary basis, CEs completed three years prior to the date you submit your online declaration form to the Board of Certification would qualify for the program as long as they meet the CMP requirements for your certification category. For example, if you submit your declaration form May 15, 2022, CEs must be completed between May 15, 2019 through May 15, 2022.

Upon successful completion of the program, the designation “CM” in superscript, is added after your certification credential [e.g., MLT(ASCP)^{CM}] for the three-year period your certification is valid under the CMP cycle. If you choose not to continue your voluntary participation in the program, you are no longer permitted to use the superscript “CM” after your certification credential. However, your original certification remains valid, with no expiration date. For example, if you are certified as a Medical Technologist MT(ASCPⁱ) and you do not continue to participate in the voluntary CMP, your credential will revert back from MLS(ASCP)^{CM} to MT(ASCPⁱ), with no expiration.

POINT ALLOCATION

Continuing Education Activities are awarded points based on the Guidelines on page 6. It is the responsibility of the certificant to properly allocate all CMP points to the required areas for recertification or the declaration submission will be marked deficient.

STEPS FOR COMPLETING THE CMP

1. Review the International CMP booklet and information posted on the ASCP website for requirements and instructions for completing the program. Please visit www.ascp.org/cmp.
2. Within your three-year certification cycle, complete the continuing education activities required for your certification category. (As a courtesy, the BOC sends out CMP email reminders, however, it is your responsibility to keep track of your certification expiration date*. Be sure to keep your email address up to date.)

*Reinstatement of an expired certification is subject to a $125 reinstatement fee.

3. Up to three (3) months prior to your certification expiration date, complete the online declaration process and pay the application fee by credit card. Please allow up to 30 business days to process your declaration form. Faxed/emailed declaration forms will not be accepted.
CMP fees are non-refundable.

PLEASE NOTE: the earliest a current (not expired) certification cycle will update, is the first day of the month in which it expires.

4. Save all original certificates of attendance or any other type of documentation of completion in the event your declaration form is selected for audit.
5. If you receive notification that your declaration is being audited, you will be required to submit copies of the certificates of completion and any other documentation of completion at that time.
6. Upon successful completion of the program, you will receive access to an online renewal notification of your new three-year certification cycle dates. The designation "CM" in superscript is required after your certification credentials to indicate you have successfully maintained your certification. [e.g., MLT(ASCP)^{CM}]

CMP APPLICATION FEES

CMP Application Fee: $95

CMP Application Fee: $125

(Required fee for expired certifications in addition to the application fee.)

Reduced Fee for Multiple Certifications: $15

For each additional certification with the same expiration date or within three months of each other. To receive the reduced fee, multiple declarations must be submitted separately on the same business day.

PLEASE NOTE: CMP fees are non-refundable.

FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE IN CMP

If you are required to participate in the CMP, and do not participate, your certification will no longer be valid after the three-year expiration date and you will no longer be permitted to use the ASCPⁱ certification credential after your name. Information on reinstatement for expired certification is located on page 15.

DOCUMENTATION FOR AUDIT

To ensure the integrity of the CMP program, a percentage of declaration forms will be audited to verify completion of the program. If your declaration form is selected for audit, you will be notified and required to submit documentation of completion verifying all CEs submitted on your declaration form for recertification. (See Audit Procedures on page 14 for further information.)

CMP COVID-RELATED CONTINUING EDUCATION (CE) (CE completed March 1, 2020 - December 31, 2022)

The ASCP Board of Certification (BOC) recognizes the vital work of laboratory professionals in response to the COVID-19 pandemic and the critical professional development it necessitated. Because of concerns about obtaining continuing education during the pandemic due to increased workloads and/or limited availability of in-person training or conferences, the BOC is offering a time-limited opportunity to use COVID-related activities performed within the normal scope of work or outside normal job duties for up to 12 CMP points/CEUs towards recertification. These points should be self-entered as a single CMP activity and allocated under “related areas of interest” only on the online declaration form (please see criteria and instructions below).

CRITERIA TO CLAIM CREDITS FOR THE CMP

- To be accepted, COVID-Related continuing education (CE) activities must have been completed between March 1, 2020 and December 31, 2022 (and be within your three-year CMP cycle).
- Activities must be work-related and new, additional, or out-of-specialty skills or activities.
- Your Manager/Supervisor must review, verify, and sign-off on the completed activities indicated on the CMP COVID-related CE Claim Form.)
- The maximum number of CMP points accepted on the Claim Form = 12.
- These CMP points may be used for related areas of interest only.
- The CMP COVID-related CE Claim Form may be used one-time only and for a single CMP cycle.

To claim credits, CMP points must be self-recorded in your online declaration form AND the COVID-Related CE Claim Form must be emailed to the ASCP Board of Certification for review and approval.

Self-record the total number of COVID-Related CEs you are claiming as one entry in your online declaration form and allocate the points towards “Related Areas of Interest.”

You will be requested to submit copies of the documents listed for all of the continuing competence activities you completed to acquire the necessary CMP points. If your documentation is provided in a language other than English, translated English copies will be required. DO NOT SUBMIT original documents, except for official college/university transcripts. Copies of documentation are accepted by email. Instructions will be provided in the audit notification.

SUCCESSFUL COMPLETION OF CMP AFTER AUDIT

Upon successful completion of the audit process, you will receive access to an online renewal notification of your new valid three-year certification cycle dates. The designation "CM", as a superscript, is required after your certification credential to indicate that you have successfully maintained your certification [e.g., MLS(ASCP)^{CM}].

UNSUCCESSFUL AUDIT

If your declaration is under audit and you are unable to submit documentation of completed CEs, you may complete new points within the last month of certification to meet the CMP requirements. If you were unable to complete the required CMP points due to extenuating circumstances, you may submit a letter of appeal to the ASCP Board of Certification.

AUDIT APPEALS PROCEDURE

To appeal an unsuccessful audit, you must submit a letter to the Board of Certification. This letter must describe in detail the reasons for your inability to complete the program and include documentation supporting your request.

Extenuating circumstances likely to be considered include: serious, incapacitating illness over one year in duration; or military assignment overseas over a one-year duration in a location with no access to online workshops. Financial hardship and personal/family-related responsibilities are not considered extenuating circumstances.

Your letter of appeal and all supporting documentation will be reviewed and you will be notified of the decision.

INACTIVE STATUS FOR REQUIRED CMP PARTICIPATION

If you wish to request inactive status for a period of time, you must submit a $40 fee,* a letter describing in detail the reasons for your inactive status and documentation.

Extenuating circumstances likely to be considered include: serious, incapacitating illness over one year in duration; or military assignment overseas over a one-year duration in a location with no access to online workshops; or reside in a location with no access to online workshops. Financial hardship and personal/family-related responsibilities are not considered extenuating circumstances.

 The inactive status fee will be waived for individuals residing in countries requiring mandatory military service when that is the basis for inactive status. Documentation is required.*

To be reinstated after inactive status has expired, you must submit a completed online declaration form documenting all points earned within the extended period granted to you as required for your certification category. You will also be required to pay the current CMP fee(s) (available at www.ascp.org/cmp).

At the end of the extended period, if you fail to participate and do not submit compelling reasons for continuing inactive status as described under the Appeals Procedure, your certification will no longer be valid and you may no longer use the ASCPⁱ certification credential after your name.

REINSTATEMENT FOR EXPIRED CERTIFICATION

If you allow your certification to expire and then seek reinstatement, you must submit a completed online declaration form documenting all points earned within the previous three years as required by your certification category. You must also pay a reinstatement fee in addition to the application fee. CMP fees are non-refundable.

The BOC will not grant extensions or waive the reinstatement fee due to the non-receipt of emailed CMP reminder notifications. The certificant is responsible for keeping their email address information up to date in their ASCP customer record.

If your certification has lapsed for ten (10) or more years, you will be required to retake and pass the certification examination for reinstatement of your certification. If this applies to you, contact 10yexpired@ascp.org.

Q1: If I become certified but fail to complete or participate in the required Credential Maintenance Program (CMP), what happens? Will my ASCP certification be revoked?

A: International certifications issued on or after January 1, 2012 are valid for three years. If someone fails to participate in the required CMP, their certification will no longer be valid after the three-year certification expiration date. They are no longer permitted to use the certification credential [e.g., MLS(ASCP)¹^{CM}] after their name since their certification is no longer valid.

Q2: How do I reinstate an expired certification?

A: If you have a time-limited certification and you allow your certification to expire and then seek reinstatement, you must submit a completed online declaration form documenting all continuing education earned within the previous three years as required by your certification category. You must also pay a $125 reinstatement fee in addition to the application fee.

PLEASE NOTE: Individuals who allow their ASCP credential to expire for ten or more years will be required to retake and pass the certification examination in order to reinstate their credential.

Q3: Will individuals be allowed to start the program before the initial certification or re-certification date?

A: Points accumulated toward meeting the CMP requirements must be obtained within the three-year certification cycle. (e.g., if the certification validation period is January 2021 through January 2024, all points must be completed within this three-year period.) Continuing education completed before your re-certification validation period begins will not be accepted.

Q4: Please provide some clarification regarding BOC certification, ASCP membership and the Credential Maintenance Program (CMP). What is the difference between certification and membership? There seems to be some confusion and perhaps a misperception that paying ASCP membership dues will go towards renewing BOC certification.

A: Certification by the ASCP Board of Certification (BOC) requires meeting specific eligibility requirements and successful completion of the certification examination. Individuals who was awarded international certification beginning January 2012 and beyond are required to maintain their certification through completion of the Credential Maintenance Program (CMP) every three years. ASCP Membership is voluntary, separate and apart from certification. Certification and maintenance of certification are not contingent upon membership in any professional organization.

Q5: Can I use the 25 points I received for earning a specialist SBB certification from the BOC towards my SBB CMP requirements?

A: The BOC awards CMP points for the completion of an advanced BOC certification or qualification. These points may be used one-time towards recertification for any certification other than the one for which the points were awarded.

For example, if an international MLS certificant earns a specialty certification such as an SBB certification, 25 points will be awarded and can be used to meet the MLS recertification requirements. Likewise, if a CTgyn certificant earns a specialty certification such as an International MB, the 25 points earned cannot be used to meet the International MB recertification requirements.

Q6: If I have further questions regarding this program, whom do I contact?

A: Contact ASCP Customer Service - Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 5:00 pm ET

International - 312.541.4886
