The ASCP Board of Certification is an administratively independent certification agency that prepares relevant standards and develops procedures that will assure the competence of non-physician medical laboratory personnel.

The ASCP Board of Certification credentials those individuals who meet the academic and clinical prerequisites and who achieve acceptable performance levels on examinations.

The Board of Certification does not discriminate among applicants as to age, gender, race, religion, national origin, disability, marital status or sexual orientation.
About the ASCP Board of Certification

Founded in 1928 by the American Society for Clinical Pathology (ASCP), the Board of Certification is widely accepted as the most influential leader in the field of certification of medical laboratory professionals. To date over 525,000 individuals have been certified. The Board of Governors of the ASCP Board of Certification has 24 members:

- Five pathologists (nominated by the ASCP); including one member of the American Society of Hematology
- Five laboratory professionals (nominated by the ASCP); including one member of the American Association for Clinical Chemistry
- Four representatives from the American Society for Clinical Laboratory Science (ASCLS)
- Two representatives from the Association of Genetic Technologists (AGT)
- One representative from each of the following six additional participating specialty societies:
  - AABB; American Association of Pathologists’ Assistants; American Society for Microbiology; American Society of Cytopathology; Clinical Laboratory Management Association; National Society for Histotechnology

- Past Board of Governors Chair

Qualification

What are the advantages of completing a Qualification?

- Visible recognition of specific skills in a technical area with the Qualification initials after the ASCP credentials
- Recognition by state licensure—the state of Florida recognizes those individuals certified and qualified as HT(ASCP)QIHC toward meeting the specialist licensure requirements for histology
- More job possibilities—career mobility throughout the country
- Professional growth—keeping up with state of the art technology

To receive this credential, candidates must meet the eligibility requirements and examination (QIA, QIHC, QLS). Candidates who complete the Qualification process, will receive a Certificate of Qualification which is valid for three years.

The Qualification may be requalified every three years upon completion of acceptable continuing education related to the area of Qualification. The Qualification will not, in itself, entitle the individual to ASCP membership. Requalification application forms are located at www.ascp.org/cmp.
