Online and Live Leadership Courses

ASCP Leadership Institute®

The Leadership Institute is a series of online and live leadership courses facilitated by organizational and leadership experts from the American Society for Clinical Pathology's (ASCP).

The goal of the Leadership Institute is to increase leadership skills at all levels of an organization by teaching participants different communication and conflict skills, leadership styles, and how to become more situationally effective.

The live courses are facilitated by ASCP's Leadership and Organizational Development Department. This team has extensive experience in leadership coaching, assessment interpretation, and course design and facilitation at ASCP and multiple other national and international organizations.

Continuing Education Credits

Every Leadership Institute course is accredited through the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide CME/CMLE/SAMs CME education credits.

Self-Assessments

Several courses in the Leadership Institute include a self-assessment that gives participants insight into their own leadership behaviors, styles, and preferences. Participants can download their self-assessment results for future reference. Each assessment has been rigorously validated through extensive research and are made available in the online/live courses and through personal coaching. Based on an organization's need, group/team reports are available to assess strengths and development areas of specific teams, departments, or organizations.

Types of Activities

Through the institute, participants have access to:

- Leadership Institute Certificate Program (Online)
- Live Facilitation
- Personal Coaching (Online and/or Live)

Leadership Institute Certificate Program (Online)

In the Leadership Institute Certificate Program, participants hone their leadership skills at their own pace through 12 on-demand courses. Through an advanced self-assessment program, participants gain insight into their current viewpoints on leadership topics, identify areas of growth and use the knowledge gained to develop advanced leadership skills.

Courses include a pre-course self-assessment to help participants discover insights into their own leadership behavior. Participants are able to download their self-assessment results for future reference.

The courses selected for the Leadership Institute Certificate Program cover multiple areas of leadership, including:

- Communication Skills
- Self-Awareness and Feedback
- Leadership Styles
- Organizational Effectiveness
- Team Dynamics
- Conflict Resolution
- Stress Coping Skills
- Diversity and Inclusion

The courses can be taken in any order and all courses build upon each other to give deeper insights into participants' own leadership styles. Upon completion of the program, participants will receive a Leadership Certificate in the mail.

Live Facilitation

Through live on-site facilitation, organizations, departments, and teams can benefit from a personalized approach to enhance communication, performance, and leadership. All courses in this catalog are available for live facilitation and can be tailored towards specific needs, challenges, and organizations. The duration of the courses varies and can be altered to fit your organization's needs. Typically, courses are between one to three hours, include self-assessments, are interactive, and will leave participants with practical applications to use in their job.

Personal Coaching (Online and/or Live)

Personal coaching can help target specific leadership challenges or developmental areas. Participants can sign up for one-on-one coaching sessions conducted in-person, over the phone, or via video-conferencing. The training and guidance through this process are catered specifically to the coachee's professional needs and goals and tailored to their schedule.

Expected Results

Participants in the Leadership Institute are expected to improve their leadership effectiveness through assessing and/or validating current knowledge or skills; acquiring and implementing new knowledge, skills, and techniques; acquiring and utilizing valid and reliable self-assessment tools and materials for self-study, performance assessment, and applying what they learned about their leadership styles, strengths and growth opportunities.

SYNERGISTIC DECISION-MAKING

Building synergy around team decisions is one of the essential skills of a leader. This course will give you clear insights into your own team decision-making contributions through a group process simulation. The model used in this course consists of two aspects to increase synergy: problem solving and interpersonal skills. Problem solving is the rational sequence of questions and action items a team considers in reaching a decision. Interpersonal relations are the way people treat one another while solving the problem. Through a simulation, participants will examine their individual performance as compared to a group's performance. In addition, participants will gain insights about constructive and less constructive behaviors they use and how to increase team development.

Upon completion of this course, participants are able to:

- Demonstrate how teams are able to produce decisions that are more effective than individual decisions.
- Practice the rational and interpersonal skills involved in synergistic decision making.
- Develop the skills necessary to effectively manage a project.
- Apply decision-making skills to initiate change in their organization.
